

TURK OUTRAGE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Three Solid Shots Fired At Launch Carrying Captain Of the Tennessee and Bearing American Flag, May Be Grounds for International Complications of a Serious Character---Act of Turks Arouses Uncle Sam.

By Associated Press.

Washington, November 18.—(Bulletin)—Captain Decker of the Cruiser Tennessee reported to Secretary Daniels early today that while proceeding from Vourlah to Smyrna to make an official call, the vessel was fired upon.

Washington, Nov. 18.—The United States cruiser Tennessee, or her launch—probably the latter—was fired upon yesterday by the Turkish forts at Smyrna. Captain Benton C. Decker, of the cruiser, reporting the incident today to the Navy Department, gave no details of the firing, but added that fears had been felt for the safety of the American consulate.

While awaiting further reports from Captain Decker and others from Ambassador Morgenthau and Consul General Horton, officials here have two theories. One is that the cruiser may have been sending a guard ashore to protect the consulate and Americans and other foreigners. They draw this from Captain Decker's statement that fears had been felt for the safety of the consulate. The other is that Captain Decker had called on Consul General Horton who, after returning the call, was being taken back to shore by the cruiser's launch, which may have been returning after hours of entry prescribed by port officials, which are very strict. Before regarding the firing upon the American ships as a hostile act of officials here are inclined to await further reports and hold to the belief that it might have been a misunderstanding or the act of some local official, which will be quickly corrected in Constantinople.

The cruiser North Carolina is at Beirut on the coast of Asia Minor, about 500 miles away. Acting Secretary Landings called upon Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople to make a complete investigation. Communication, however, between Constantinople and the United States is very slow.

Those officials who regard the incident as a misunderstanding of some kind say that had Captain Decker been convinced that the Turkish forts were firing on his ship as an act of hostility, the big fighting machine would not have steamed away to the harbor of Chios without a further incident.

An earlier dispatch from Captain Decker, reporting the Tennessee's arrival at Vourlah at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, made no mention of the incident. Mr. Daniels issued a statement saying the American consul at Smyrna had been anxious for the safety of the consulate.

"The Tennessee," added Mr. Daniels' statement, "proceeded to and left Vourlah at request of Ambassador Morgenthau, and is now anchored in the harbor of Chios, from which Captain Decker's telegram was sent."

Secretary Daniels has called upon Captain Decker to forward immediately a full report of the incident.

Chios, Aegean Sea, November 18.—The American armoured cruiser Tennessee arrived in this port today. It is stated that yesterday, while the captain of the Tennessee was in the ship's launch, which was flying the American flag, on his way to pay the customary visit on the Turkish officials at Smyrna, three solid shots were fired on the boat by the forts. American Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, without investigating the incident, it is said, immediately ordered the Tennessee from Turkish waters at the request of the Turkish officials.

Chios is about four miles off the coast of Asia Minor and near the Gulf of Smyrna. The island formerly belonged to Turkey, but has been in the possession of Greece since the Balkan war.

TOLEDO MEN ARE HELD

By Associated Press.

Toledo, November 18.—Four Toledo men, exhausted, half starved and nearly frozen were rescued from Lake Erie near Kingsville, Ontario, early today after being tossed about nearly 24 hours in a small boat. They are being held now by Canadian authorities as German spies it is said. The four men are: William H. Bleschke, Otto Peters, Frank Hoyt and Dwight T. Gould. Bleschke has a German accent and it is believed that is what caused the party to fall under suspicion.

Tampa, Fla., November 18.—Ten inmates of the state reform school at Marianna, Fla., are reported to have lost their lives today in a fire which destroyed the institution.

PLAN TRANSFER OF GREAT AMOUNT

Washington, November 18.—With the $135,000,000 cotton loan fund fully subscribed, steps were taken today to clear the way for the actual transfer of the money to southern cotton producers.

CARRANZA CHIEF MEETS DEATH

Washington, November 18.—Gen. Jose Carbajal, a Carranza chief, was killed in an engagement near Puerto Mexico, yesterday, when his troops joined Villa forces and attacked General Jesus Carranza, a brother of the Constitutionalist first chief.

GENERAL BEYERS LEADS REVOLT AGAINST OLD FOES IN TRANSVAAL.

Brigadier General Christian Frederick Beyers, who resigned as commander of the Union of South Africa's defense forces because of his disapproval of the action of Great Britain in sending commandos to conquer German Southwest Africa, is a lawyer by profession. He was speaking of the legislative assembly of the Transvaal and lives in Pretoria. He is forty-five years old. He enlisted as a private in the Boer army against the British and rose to be assistant commandant general of the northern district of the Transvaal. His chief exploit in the South African war was the capture of the British camp at Nootgedacht, but his greatest claim to distinction is that he was agreed upon as chairman of the Vereeniging peace conference, which brought the war to an end. He is now leading a revolt against the British.

WOULD HAVE HALF MILLION IN U. S. ARMY

By Associated Press.

Washington, November 18.—Declaring it would be impossible to defend the Panama Canal and American territorial possessions against attack with present or proposed garrisons, unless they could be rapidly reinforced, Major General Weatherston, retired chief of staff, in his report today recommended the increase of the regular army to a strength of 250,000 enlisted men.

He proposed that that force be augmented through a system of reserves until there was created a mobile strength of 500,000 first line troops, equipped for a six months' campaign.

VILLA AND CARRANZA NOT READY TO QUIT

Washington, November 18.—General Carranza has again refused to deliver the executive power to any but a man of his own selection and once more peace plans for Mexico are upset, according to official dispatches today from American agents in Mexico. Just as it seemed that an amicable adjustment had been reached, General Carranza has announced that he was misunderstood. From both American Consul Silliman and Leon Canova, special agent at Aguascalientes, the state department received practically the same version of the newest split.

Washington, November 18.—General Carranza has repudiated the telegram sent for him by General Pablo Gonzales to General Guiterrez, in which the first chief was represented as saying he would retire. This was announced today in an official dispatch from American Consul Silliman.

Mexico City, November 18.—General Obregon, who yesterday assumed command of the capital and of the federal district, last night received a telegram from General Gonzales in which the latter declared that General Villa, by advancing his troops southward, had repeatedly broken the truce agreement entered into on November 12 between General Gonzales and General Eulalio Guiterrez, the provisional president. A large body of troops of General Obregon's division arrived here last night from Irapuato.

General Alvarado has issued a statement declaring General Villa a greater enemy to Mexican democracy than was Huerta. He says Villa forced an unnecessary civil war on Mexico.

It is reported General Carranza will move his capital to Vera Cruz immediately upon evacuation by the Americans.

WILL DR. SHAW WIN AGAIN AS HEAD OF NATIONAL SUFFRAGISTS?

REV. DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 18.—Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage association, is a candidate for re-election at the forty-sixth annual convention now being held here. There will be opposition to her, particularly from the faction called the Congressional union, led by Miss Alice Paul. The opponents, who, it is rumored, will be put against Dr. Shaw are Miss Anne Martin, of Nevada; Mrs. Maud Wood Park of Boston, and Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, of Illinois. It is questioned whether any one will have the courage at the last moment to oppose Dr. Shaw, who has headed the suffragists for many years.

BATTLE RENEWED WITH GREAT FURY

Struggle Along Front From Belgian Coast to Swiss Border Ends in Little Progress, With Allies Repulsing Attacks---Terrible Conflict Rages in East But Russians Still Move Forward in East Prussia.

By Associated Press.

London, November 18.—On the two main battle fronts from the Belgian seacoast to the Swiss border and along the eastern boundary of Germany, renewed efforts were being made today to bring about a decided turn in the progress of the war. The situation in Eastern Prussian presented apparently the greatest opportunity for a quick and important change, although Russians and Germans were still in sharp conflict.

In Belgium the Germans have begun another of their fearful onslaughts. The allies have succeeded in flooding a further area, so that heavy infantry fighting is almost impossible from the seacoast nearly to Ypres. A new bombardment of Belgian coast towns by British warships is said to have inflicted heavy damage on the German positions and to have destroyed large quantities of ammunition and stores.

The French government, according to unofficial advices, will soon return to Paris. Today's French official statement was optimistic, stating that German attacks had been repulsed and that the allies had gained ground at a few points. Along the Belgian coast, it said, the fighting had been left chiefly to the artillery.

The fighting at Alsace, which has been virtually a separate campaign, is said by the French to have told heavily upon the German forces.

London, November 18.—No change in the kaleidoscopic operations in Russian Poland has been more startling than the threatened resumption of the offensive on the part of the Germans, a movement by which the heart of the Russian line has been attacked and Warsaw again threatened.

Usual conflicting reports arise from the neighborhood of these operations. Petrograd does not deny that the Germans have resumed the offensive, but dispatches from the Russian capital declare that such a movement will not cause the slightest diversion from the Russian invasion of East Prussia, which is proceeding slowly but steadily. Meanwhile Berlin claims a victory near Litno, imperiling the Russian forces, which, according to German reports, must make a stand before crossing the Vistula river, as a retirement behind that stream would be too difficult.

Berlin reports that the Russians are near Kutno, but Vienna claims a victory for her ally at this place.

From this welter of conflicting reports emerges clearly the fact that a great battle is under way in western Poland on the line between the river Vistula and the river Warta. It is equally clear that the Russian advance has been brought to a halt.

In the meantime, Russian progress continues through the Carpathians, before Cracow and in East Prussia.

Paris, November 18.—A dispatch from Petrograd today says: "A terrific battle is under way in western Poland on the line between the river Vistula and the river Warta. The Russians are endeavoring, at any cost to avenge their check at Solda and are throwing themselves at the Germans with indescribable fury."

SILVER LINING OF QUARANTINE CLOUD

By Associated Press.

Columbus, O., November 18.—Delegations of cattle raisers and bankers, who continued to pour into Columbus today to protest against the extreme nature of the foot and mouth quarantine, were told by A. P. Sandles, president of the Agriculture Commission that permits for the shipment of cattle from non-infected areas for immediate slaughter have been issued in blank to district veterinarians.

Shipment probably can be made this week under these circumstances, the delegation was told. Permits must be secured, however.

"Every protest such as you men have brought here delays the operation of our gradual relief system," President Sandles told one delegation from southeastern Ohio counties, "50 per cent of the time of veterinarians in charge of this campaign has been spent in useless answering of complaints."

The Agriculture Commission issued an order today allowing duck hunting, from boats only in any lake in the state.

By nine o'clock tonight state and federal veterinarian authorities will know whether they can release from quarantine any county in the state, it was announced.

A statement issued by the Commission explained that no embargo has been placed on the shipment of poultry within the state, except from farms where the disease actually exists. Butchers may go to any farm and slaughter animals if hoofs, horns and hides are not taken from the farm, and poultry may be shipped to another state if the authorities at its destination will accept it.

MEXICAN BULLET HITS AMERICAN

Naco, Arizona, November 18.—R. H. Reynolds, a United States customs inspector, was wounded by a stray Mexican bullet today when the Maytorena forces made a general attack on the Carranza garrison of Naco, Sonora. Reynolds was in a hotel on the American side at the time. Three Mexican women on the American side also were wounded by stray bullets, one seriously.

Washington, Nov. 18. — President Wilson sounded an optimistic note on retary of the Treasury McAdoo. Taking as the occasion for a "prosperity" keynote the opening of the federal reopening of the reserve system, declously acknowledges the efforts of others to bring it about.

Incidentally, the president recognizes the efforts of the banks and the railroads to meet the situation, and suggests that the railroad problem will have to be dealt with at an early day in a spirit of "candor."

The president in his letter says:
"The tariff has been recast with a view to supporting the government rather than supporting the favored beneficiaries of the government. A system of banking and currency issues has been created which puts credit within the reach of every man who can show a going business; and the supervision and control of the system is in the hands of a responsible agency of the government itself."

"This is the more significant because of its opportuneness. It is brought to its final accomplishment just as it is most imperatively needed.
The war which has involved the whole of the heart of Europe has made it necessary that the United States should mobilize its resources in the most effective way possible and make her credit and her usefulness good for the service of the whole world."

"The future is clear and bright with the promise of the best things.
We shall advance and advance together with a new spirit, a new enthusiasm, a new cordiality of spirited co-operation. It is an inspiring prospect. Our task is henceforth to work, not for any single interest, but for all the interests of the country, as a united whole. The future will be very different from the past, which we shall presently look back upon, I venture to say, as if upon a bad dream."

ment of Manton M. Wyville of New

Bryan, to be counsel to the international joint commission at a salary commission is maintained jointly by

MINES IN NORTH SEA

Washington, Nov. 18.—The state department is still without complete and exact data regarding the planting of mines in the North sea, and consequently no action has been taken in the matter. Officials of the department point out that there was no ground for assuming that on the receipt of such information any step in the nature of a protest to either Great Britain or Germany would be taken.
It was also pointed out that alleged violations of the provisions of the Hague convention do not afford any ground for protest by the United States, inasmuch as The Hague conventions with regard to mines are not binding upon the belligerents in the present war. This is due to the fact that not all the belligerents have ratified the Hague convention with regard to mine planting.

TO AVOID CATARRH OR BREAK UP A COLD

Use Hyomei a Simple Remedy that Instantly Relieves.

At the first symptom of catarrh such as sniffles, fits of sneezing, raising of mucus, itching of the nose, or that choked-up feeling surely take immediate steps to conquer the disease.
Catarrh is not only distressing, unclean and annoying, but a serious ailment.

One of the easiest and simplest remedies to check catarrh and break up a cold is Hyomei. Just put a few drops of this antiseptic and healing liquid into the small inhaler that comes with every complete outfit, and breathe it. This medicated air immediately soothes the inflamed tissues and effectively drives out the poison.
Just a few minutes use of this most helpful remedy opens the stuffed air passages, clears the head and throat of the unclean discharges—you breathe freely and immediately feel better.

Hyomei is so certain to relieve and giving lasting benefit that Brown's drug store sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan. adv

ATTACK RENEWED AT YPRES

FRENCH REVIEW OPERATIONS

Gains Made in Belgium and France
at Every Point Where the Fighting Has Been Important During the Past Two Days—Allies Secure Foothold Near Saint Mihiel—The Official Report.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The announcement by the war office that the allies made progress at every point where the fighting has been important during the past two days, since the loss of Dixmude, indicates that the German advance has been checked and that the plan of General Joffre to push his lines ahead, no matter how slowly, is one that takes fully into account temporary checks and incidental reverses.

The report is especially cheering to the allies because of the fact that the Germans have again begun their forcing tactics in the region of Ypres, which has all along been the center of the most severe actions, and that the allies have held their ground, and even made more or less marked progress.

Announcement was also made that the allies have been conducting a successful offensive, particularly against the point of the German wedge. Here, for the first time, an attack from the west by the French troops resulted in a German repulse. The communique showed that the allies now have a foothold in the village of Chauvencourt, about a mile and a quarter west of St. Mihiel, the sole remaining point of support left to the Germans on the left bank of the Meuse in this locality.
Violent cannonading has been resumed in the Rheims region, and several shells have again fallen in the city.

German army headquarters gave out an official report as follows: "Generally speaking, the day passed quietly in the western arena of the war. To the south of Verdun and to the northeast of Cirey the French made several attacks, which, however, were unsuccessful."

"Operations in the eastern arena made further favorable progress, but detailed reports are not yet at hand."

AMERICAN HELD

Paris, Nov. 18.—Some details have been received here of the arrest of two Americans, Messrs. Frost and Bruce, who are residents of Belle Isle, where there is a concentration camp for German prisoners. A short time ago Frost and Bruce walked toward the quay to watch the arrival of some prisoners. The presence of the two men offended the colonel commanding the French troops, and he ordered that they be brought before him. Mr.
Bruce energetically protested against this action. The colonel then ordered Frost's arrest for insulting him. Bruce was also arrested and escorted to the gendarmerie. Bruce was released, but Frost has been held for investigation. The American embassy here is making efforts to obtain Mr.
Frost's immediate release as he is in poor health. If, however, a charge of insulting an officer is preferred against him, some difficulty may arise.

No Easy Task In Prospect

Although two months' time must yet elapse before the next legislature of Ohio convenes, there are tens of thousands of individuals in the state who have already begun to speculate on just what the legislative branch of the government will do in the way of repealing or vitally changing the so-called Cox laws.

There are as many, or perhaps more, deeply interested students of political and governmental problems outside the state of Ohio too, who are just as busy speculating on that very subject as Ohio folks are, because the wonderful progress made in the matter of the enactment of humanitarian legislation during the administration of Gov. Cox has attracted nation wide interest.

The incoming administration in both the executive and legislative branches will come into power with no definite program of action unless the general promise to "decentralize" the appointing power under the state liquor license law and the Warnes tax law may be construed as such.

If the incoming administration is under any platform promise at all, it is to enact legislation which will permit each county to choose its own liquor license commissioners.

The unexpected success of the Home Rule amendment to the constitution which renders available a vast amount of dry territory for saloon purposes and the consequent activity of the dry forces, has developed a storm cloud on the horizon which threatens grave danger to those who, by legislative enactment, make possible the opening of saloons on Sunday.

In view of conditions at present existing in Ohio that one specific promise of performance in the way of legislative enactment has become difficult to fulfill.

The general campaign promises of the candidates and orators to reduce expenses, decrease commissions and offices, offer still further problems, the solution of which puzzles the incoming administration and furnishes subjects for speculation among those people who sit back and watch the wheels go round.

The repeal of the Warnes law with its appointive assessor provisions, which most people agree that it furnishes the only method effectual for securing a full return of personal property, is not likely to create such intense and immediate dissatisfaction as a vital change in some of the other statutes really less important to the people as a whole.

Any change in the basic principles of the workmen's compensation law which would make possible the return of the liability insurance companies to the Ohio field, would subject the administration responsible to severe censure while a material increase in the schedule of compensation awards would meet with the violent objection of the men who pay the bills—the employers of labor.

And so on through the list. Each specific opportunity for change, in fulfillment of the general promise, carries with it its own particular menace and that too, in face of the fact that the state administration now drawing to a close has perhaps the largest record of legislative performance in the history of the state.

The incoming administration cannot sit still and do nothing and not many people in Ohio presume or expect that it will do so, but just what it will attempt to do and how much it will do, and just how it will be done, furnishes an abundance of fuel to keep the fires of speculation burning brightly, no matter what particular hopes or fears or convictions interested folks may entertain.

The members of the newly elected official family of Ohio now realize fully the vast difference between affirmative official action with its attendant responsibilities and unofficial criticism without responsibility.

The task which the incoming administration faces is no easy one. It will require the best thought and effort of the men who have taken upon themselves the responsibility and they merit and should receive the support of all good citizens while they are engaged in the task of making changes in existing laws.

The solution of the problem is not made more simple by reason of the fact that many elements at war with the interest of the people and antagonistic to each other are demanding recognition and relief from legislation which meets with their especial disfavor.

Sin and Suffering Mere Adventures In Life

By ARTHUR CHRISTOPHER BENSON, British Essayist

SIN, the ordinary sins of ordinary life, are not, as a rule, instincts which are evil in themselves, so much as instincts which are selfishly pursued to the detriment of others. Sin is in its essence the selfishness which will not co-operate and which secures advantages unjustly without any heed to the disadvantage of others. Sympathetic imagination is the real foe of sin, the power of putting oneself in the place of another.

THE OLD THEORY OF SIN LANDS ONE IN A HORRIBLE DILEMMA.

BECAUSE IT IMPLIES A TREACHEROUS ENMITY ON THE PART OF GOD TO CREATE MAN WEAK AND UNSTABLE, AND TO PUT HIS WEAKNESS AGAINST TYRANNOUS DESIRES; TO ALLOW HIS WILL TO DO EVIL, TO BE STRONGER THAN HIS POWER TO DO RIGHT, IS A SATANICAL DEVICE.

It is far more wholesome and encouraging to look upon many disasters that befall us as opportunities to show a little spirit, to evoke the courage which does not come by indolent prosperity, to increase our sympathy, to enlarge our experience, to make things clearer to us, to develop our mind and heart, to free us from material temptations. PAST SUFFERING IS NOT ALWAYS AN EVIL; IT IS OFTEN AN EXCITING REMINISCENCE.

Poetry For Today

NIGHT.

Far in the West the light of Day is fading,
With streaks of golden tapestry or hanging vapory sky,
A soothing hush and daytime's noisy clamor
Changes into restful soul's calm lullaby.

Slowly all nature's vibrations pause,
Ere the doleful hum of insects fills the air,
Affording time for thoughts uplifting
To higher realms in silent prayer.

The mossy carpet of the earth is dampened
With moisture of the coming misty night,
And the little birds are close and warmly nestled,
Beneath a mother's wings until the morning light.

A brooding sense of loneliness surrounds us,
Leaving the mind to wander free at will,
And tired brains relax in listless ponderings
While the human forces rest and all is still.

The gathering darkness seems to dull one's senses,
As restless sleep demands her claim,
And soon in dreamland we are roaming,
Back to the olden days again.

Oh, mystic hour when midnight hovers,
O'er earth, beneath the starlit sky,
Where is the sense of mind sequestered,
To what unknown sphere doth our slumbering spirits fly?

SOME DEAD LIBRARIES.

Mausoleums at Oxford For Works Long Since Out of Use.

In his book on "Old Oxford Libraries" Strickland Gibson describes the old library of Jesus college, built and founded by Sir Leoline Jenkins about 1676, "as a mausoleum for books long since dead."

"For can any change of scholarship," the author asks, "quicken old Testament and raise him from the grave? Will any theologian, save out of mere curiosity, ever pore again over the sixteen folio volumes of Alfonso Salmetero? It is only by a few antiquaries that the old books are taken from their shelves. The undergraduates never enter; indeed, some have never heard of the old library. It is elsewhere, in the Undergraduates' library, that the present generation seeks learning."

But even this is not the deadest of libraries, for Mr. Gibson describes a less frequented one within the precincts of Christ church:

"Dr. Richard Allestree, regius professor of divinity, in 1680 conveyed the whole of his books to the university in trust for the use of successive regius professors of divinity. The university, by the deed of trust, was to exercise the right of visitation, but no money was left for the maintenance of the library, nor has provision ever been made for it. In a secluded cloister within a small chamber and a long, narrow room paved with red tiles the books, unvisited, pass their days in dusty desolation and unbroken peace. Only the professor has the right of entry, a right probably exercised but seldom by one whose duty it is to interpret the living Word and who may well hesitate to explore the wastes of long exhausted theological controversies.

"The eighteenth century library of St. Edmund Hall is worth visiting for the sake of its picturesque appearance and its diminutive size. It is situated above the chapel and is approached by a narrow and tortuous staircase, on which, unless the visitor follows his guide very closely, there is some likelihood of his being temporarily lost. The library is the smallest in Oxford—a little room with a gallery running round. Originally the books were all on the walls, but recently some transverse cases have been added, thus rendering perambulation difficult. It is a library for the sedentary only."

Musical Comment.

"Yes," said Mr. Cumrox, "we spent a lot of money teaching our boy Percival Claude to play the violin. But it was wasted."

"Doesn't he play?"
"Yes. But if he knew anything about music he'd realize how it sounded and wouldn't."—Washington Star.

Dissimilarity.

"Marriage is a lottery," said the ready made philosopher.
"I shouldn't say that," commented Miss Cayenne. "In a lottery it's a comparatively easy matter to tear up a losing ticket and take another chance."

WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MAN ANSWERS ETERNAL SUMMONS

Mr. George W. Baker, Late Owner of the Springfield and Washington Electric Line, and Influential Citizen is Dead as Result of Pneumonia and Heart Trouble—Died at His Home South of Town Last Night After Several Weeks' Illness.

Mr. George W. Baker, Wealthy capitalist and prominent business man of this city, died Tuesday night at a quarter past eight o'clock at his suburban home, southeast of town, aged 51 years.

The word of his death came as a distressing shock to his large family connection and a host of friends, as well as an extensive acquaintance in the business world.

For the past two years Mr. Baker has suffered from a serious heart trouble and ten weeks ago succumbed to an attack of pneumonia.

His condition was critical for several weeks, arousing the gravest anxiety of his family. The dread disease had seemed conquered, when an attack of heart failure resulted fatally.

Coming to Fayette county from Pike county 9 years ago, Mr. Baker became at once identified with Fayette's large business and farming interests, and ranked as one of her most progressive citizens, endeavoring to promote whatever was for her business success.

He engaged in the lumber and railroad tie business and extensive farming, although much of his time was devoted to the management of the Springfield and Washington traction line, of which he was sole owner.

Mr. Baker's greatest ambition was to extend this line to his home town and he put forth every effort to do so, but failed owing to a lack of financial support locally, and not caring to personally finance it further.

Mr. Baker's business interests were by no means confined to this section. He retained both farming and business interests in Pike county and is a large landowner and interested in different operations in both Fayette and adjoining counties and in the South.

Personally Mr. Baker enjoyed unusual popularity. Genial and big-hearted he was everybody's friend. In Pike county he had twice been elected to the office of county sheriff entirely without his own volition, and only imperative business cares prevented other political affiliations. He was an active member of Grace M. E. church, and belonged to the K. P. lodge at his former home.

Mr. Baker's deepest affections always centered in his family, who mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. He is survived by his wife and five children, Mrs. Chas. Baughn, of South Charleston; Mrs. W. E. Roderick, of Jackson; Floyd Baker, of South Charleston, and Damon and Charlotte Baker, of this city.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30, at the residence on the Chillicothe pike, and burial in the Community mausoleum.

BROCK SELLS BIG BUSINESS BLOCK

The following account of a big business deal taken from the Daily Bulletin of Anderson, Ind., will interest many Fayette county friends of Mr. Frank H. Brock, formerly of this county and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brock, Sr., of near Jeffersonville:

"A new figure was reached on S. Meridian street real estate this morning when the Brock flats, at the corner of Twelfth and Meridian streets, owned by Frank H. Brock, furniture dealer, was sold to Charles E. Miller, manufacturer, for $48,000 'spot' cash. The property was sold at the rate of $666 per front foot on Meridian street.

Mr. Miller bought the building as a real estate investment. The highest price paid for Meridian street property south of Twelfth street heretofore was $30,000 for the Donnelly block sold to Messrs. Hennings and Knight. A little more than $400 a front foot was paid for this property.

The Brock building which was bought by Mr. Miller this morning was built two years ago by Frank Brock, merchant. It is a modern two-story, fire-proof structure, with seven living apartments in the second story and a large business room occupied by the Stein and Canady store in the first floor. It is said that the property cost Mr. Brock $40,000. The transaction was closed by Lieb Bros. The lot formerly was occupied by the late James McKeown and was known as the McKeown homestead. The old residence was torn down 3 years ago to make way for the building which brought $48,000 today.

PURE FOOD SHOW AT COCKERILLS

A demonstration decidedly out of the ordinary, and probably the greatest of its kind ever held in the city is that to be given at the Cockerill & Son grocery, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when a corps of 10 to 15 demonstrators will be kept busy showing scores of varieties of food packed or prepared under the most sanitary surroundings, and ready for serving.

Representatives from more than a half score of big concerns will be present, and the public has been invited to attend the pure food show and become more familiar with the standard brands of food-stuffs which will be exhibited and explained. Free samples will be distributed by the various demonstrators, and the store will be a scene of great activity during the three days the show is in progress.

The Dahl-Millick company will have one or more demonstrators present to have charge of the various food products handled by that big concern.

In preparation for the event the Cockerill store has been attractively decorated throughout, and extensive plans made for entertaining the throngs who will visit the store during the next three days.

THANKSGIVING CARNIVAL AN UNBOUNDED SUCCESS

Hundreds Throng Y. M. C. A. Building Last Night and Another Big Crowd is Expected This Evening—Vaudeville Features, Like All Attractions, Makes a Hit With the Crowds—Booths Replenished For Tonight—Everybody Delighted.

Never in its history has the local Y. M. C. A. accommodated such a crowd of visitors as it did Tuesday night and it is equally as safe to say that never in its history has the city of Washington C. H. known a more elaborate or successful public social event than the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving carnival, now in progress, which began Tuesday and will continue until late tonight.

The carnival proper opened at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and from that moment until the building closed at 11 o'clock a constant stream of humanity poured in and out. Between 7 and 9 o'clock the throng was so great that the officials were at wits' ends to find some means of accommodating the hundreds of people and it became necessary, frequently during the course of the evening, to divide the multitude proportionately about the building. The receipts of the first day's session have not been counted, but it is estimated that they will more than cover the entire expense of the carnival and what is made Wednesday, it is believed, will be clear profit. All booths and amusement committees reported enormous sales of articles and tickets and it was necessary Wednesday morning to practically restock all of the booths.

Each one of the many attractive booths showed much hard work, unmistakable cleverness in construction and the inviting display of the articles offered for sale, reflecting great credit upon those who constructed the booths and arranged the articles offered.

All features offered proved immensely popular with the happy, jostling crowds and especially the vaudeville. This part of the entertainment is being staged in the Association gym and it was packed to capacity during the two shows given. The work of the "artists," all of them, deserves individual mention. The Spanish Dance, by members of the women's physical gymnasium class, was the opening number and was heartily applauded. James Knelsley, Washington's accomplished violinist, was next, and drew forth a tremendous "hand." "Dicky" Haines, in Irish song, was recalled twice by the appreciative auditors and the Boys' Glee Club of the high school was practically dragged back to the platform for a second song. The closing feature of the bill was particularly popular, being a mandolin and guitar trio medley by Messrs. W. Willis, G. Beckel and W. Craig. They responded to four encores at the second show, their only appearance. Some little trouble was experienced in manipulating the moving picture apparatus, but this will be remedied before tonight's performances. The bill tonight will altogether differ from that of last night and will include the following numbers:

Miss Margaret Wilson, blackface comedy artist; Charles Johnson, "The Cornet King," in cornet solo work; McClung, daredevil danseuse, in his famous toreador terpsichore; Multifarious Morgan, offering a boundless variety of humor; Symphony Summers, with a repertoire of saucy song successes; photoplay, 2 reels.

CHILD DIES AT MT. CARMEL HOSPITAL

Mary Louise Bohn, the infant daughter of Frank and Helen Burke Bohn, of Chillicothe, died at the Mt. Carmel hospital Wednesday morning.

Funeral services will be held in Columbus and the little one taken to Chillicothe Friday morning for burial in St. Margaret's cemetery.

Mrs. Bohn has been quite ill at Mt. Carmel hospital, but it is hoped will be able to return to her home for the burial.

Her mother, Mrs. P. J. Burke, is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bohn have the sympathy of many friends in this city in their loss.

IMPORTANT CHARGE TO FATHER MALLOY

Washington friends will be interested to know that Rev. Father M. T. Molloy, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, in Springfield, has been assigned pastor of the Columbanus church of Loveland, O.

The Springfield church deeply regrets the departure of Father Molloy, who has done such excellent work since his arrival in that city.

Father Molloy preached his farewell sermon in Springfield last Sunday. He is a son of Mrs. Margaret Molloy, of Broadway, this city.

Sunday's Springfield Sun says in part:

"Father Molloy has been stationed at St. Joseph's for the past eight years or since his ordination and in that time has made a legion of friends among Catholics and non-Catholics.

Most Reverend Archbishop Henry Moeller conferred a very high honor upon Father Molloy when he assigned him to such an important pastorate as Loveland. The usual procedure is to give a young priest a small mission or parish and then advance him later on, but Father Molloy has shown such rare judgment and ability in all church matters intrusted to him that the archbishop made an exception to the general rule and gave Father Molloy this important assignment.

Father Molloy had entire charge of St. Joseph's church during the six months' absence of Father Loney in Europe last year and upon his return Father Loney paid Father Molloy a very high tribute for the efficient manner in which he had conducted the affairs of the church and parish while in his charge.

Father Molloy has always taken an active interest in the young people of St. Joseph's and has through his tireless energy brought about splendid results in increasing the attendance of the Sodalties. He has also a keen interest in church musical matters and as director of St. Joseph's choir for the last six years has succeeded in bringing his choir to such a high plane of perfection that it is acknowledged as one of the foremost musical organizations in the city today. Father Molloy possesses a splendid baritone voice and has often been heard in solo work."

RED AND BLUE MAKE BLACK.

But That Result Depends Upon the Colors Being Perfect.

We are told by the textbooks on light that red glass is red because it absorbs all the other rays of the spectrum and transmits only the red; that blue glass absorbs all except the blue, and so with glass of every other color. The fact that red glass superimposed upon blue glass transmits violet light seems in contradiction of this teaching, according to which the red glass would absorb all the blue and green light and transmit nothing but red to the blue, which, in turn, would absorb all the red.

The reason for the violet light is that no red glass made is of sufficiently pure color to absorb all the blue and green waves and no blue glass is sufficiently pure to absorb all the red and orange rays. So the red transmits a certain amount of the blue and green and the blue transmits a certain amount of the red and orange. Enough of the blue rays come through the red glass and enough of the red rays through the blue glass to make a nice violet or purple when the glasses are superimposed.

The Scientific American describes a simple experiment by which you may prove the truth of the theory. Dissolve red aniline in amyl alcohol and copper chloride in dilute hydrochloric acid. The one will give you a transparent red liquid that will actually absorb all the rays but the red; the other will give you a transparent greenish blue liquid that will absorb all the red and orange rays. If you mix the two liquids and shake them up they will turn black. But they will not stay mixed and will quickly separate again.

In Social Circles

The Browning club met last evening in Conservatory hall with attendance of some 35 members. President in the chair and Secretary Mrs. Bay, gave report of last meeting. Names were presented for membership and Mrs. J. F. Dennis and Mrs. J. Starr Smith were re-instated as associate members.

The matter of the Red Cross Seal, which the club took up last winter, was presented and club voted to take it up again this year.

Committee to work up organization Mesdames Hennes, Martha Mark, Loyce Sever and Blackmer.

President urged full attendance and an effort for a big meeting next Sunday afternoon in the tuberculosis and training nurse interest, to be held at 2 p. m. in High school auditorium.

Mrs. Loyce Sever, chairman of Social Science and Philanthropy department, took charge of program and the first number was "Chinese Characteristics", by Mrs. Elsie Hopkins. The Chinese as a people are most economical—often 1 cent to 1 1/2 and 2 cents a day for living, and never were people of more industry. They keep on going and doing despite the years; some old men go to school when ninety years old. They have a great faculty for misunderstanding and often exceedingly trying. A married woman is only a servant in reality. She has no real name of her own after marriage, but two surnames of her father and husband. Chinese have an unusual allowance of curiosity.

Most of them are born and live and die in the same place and never out in the world. Superstition is visible in everything—roses have no scent in China, the place of honor is on the left hand; old men play marbles and with kites, while the boys look on; they shake hands with themselves in place of others. One of the most acceptable presents ever made, is a handsome coffin. Mrs. Hopkins' paper teemed with information, most interesting. Mrs. Mae Rodgers developed capably the subject of "Strikes, With Its Causes and Results." Strikes which are more unsuccessful in United States than in any other country—more successful in Great Britain. The great object in strikes in this country has been to secure a working day of eight hours and higher wages. Strikes and protection go together. In Colorado the history of these past four years of strikes is very interesting and also pathetic. Strikes have brought about a change in child labor and also they have meant great loss to capital and labor.

A very pretty chorus, "America the Beautiful", was sung by Mesdames Kerr, Gregg, Hennes, Burgett and Jackson, with Mrs. Wilkin at the piano. This was sung with effect at the meeting of the State Federation.

Mrs. Carpenter gave as the concluding number of the program a beautiful sketch by Zona Gale touching the social problems of living. Friendship village and Red Barn were two villages in which new thought and practice were developed most cleverly "to turn them into real folks." The bright points all the way through were captivating and Mrs. Carpenter as a reader always delights her audience.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Everhart handsomely entertained at an elegant six o'clock dinner Tuesday night, at their home south of town.

White and gold chrysanthemums furnished effective table decorations. The invited guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cockerill, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silcott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Darlington, Mr. and Mrs. John Weade, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cockerill, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, and Miss Faye Fisher, who assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Mrs. J. Star Smith delightfully entertained the Wednesday euchre club this afternoon. Mrs. Porter Campbell, of Bainbridge, was an out-of-town guest.

The Cecilians thoroughly enjoyed the Tuesday meeting at the home of Mrs. Alex. H. Ballard, appreciating the courtesy of Mrs. Ballard, who is not a member, in extending her hospitality.

Mrs. Lida Craig gave, with comprehensive briefness, a most interesting summary of leading American organists, pianists, violinists, vocalists, conductors, instrumental composers, song writers and critics.

A very pretty love song of Cadman, was played by Mrs. Eva Craig and Mrs. Mary Burgett sang beautifully, "Eternity".

The Priscilla Bible class of the Christian church enjoyed its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ella Cook Tuesday night.

The president was in charge. A pretty song by Helen and Ercel Cline added to the pleasure of the evening.

Goes direct to the people and the people constitute the buying public. Newspaper advertising not only talks but it emphasizes; it has the undivided attention of the reader and covers a field no salesman can hope to reach. There are many styles in newspaper advertising and the small announcement, which costs only five cents, is just as effective in its way as the larger one, which costs proportionately more. The benefits to be derived can not be measured by the size of the ad, for the very good reason that the small, inexpensive announcement invariably proves effective. Newspaper advertising costs from five cents up to any price the advertiser desires to pay.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently on the bowels and liver, but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects. All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind. Dr. P. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath. BUCKEYE CORN SPECIAL TOUR

Is Open to All Citizens of the State of Ohio.

WILL TRAVEL IN FINE STYLE

Seven Special Trains to Carry Party to Washington, Philadelphia and New York—Will Be Excursion in Interest of Education and Social Uplift.

Monday, Nov. 30, a party of fifteen hundred of Ohio's progressive citizens, including the winners in the various junior contests, will start upon a week's tour of sight-seeing, including Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

The Buckeye Corn Special Tour has developed into a great annual statewide excursion in the interest of education and social uplift. The Agricultural Commission of Ohio, under whose auspices it is conducted, has thrown it open to the public. All are invited—old and young.

The party will be transported over the Pennsylvania lines by seven special trains composed solidly of Standard steel Pullman sleepers, electric lighted, steam heated, safe, sanitary and comfortable. Each car will have its colored porter ready to respond at the press of a button. Meals en route will be served in dining cars. The party will stop at the best hotels in Washington, Philadelphia and New York. It will travel as millionaires travel.

Into that week, Nov. 30-Dec. 5, will be crowded as much sight-seeing as Bridge, etc. The boat trip, with luncheon aboard, is a complimentary entertainment by the Chamber of Commerce of the state of New York. Hon. Seth Low and other notable men of New York are manifesting great interest in this unique movement.

After the boat trip the party will tour the skyscraper district and then board elevated trains, to be carried to the Martinique and McAlpin hotels, where the party will banquet in two divisions. The evening will be spent at the Hippodrome, New York's largest theater, where the party will witness that great production, "Wars of the World." From the theater to the Pennsylvania railroad station the party will walk down the "Great White Way." At 11 p. m., Friday, Dec. 4, the Buckeye Corn Special party, in seven special trains, will start on the homeward run.

The going trip will take the party through the mill and mine districts of Pittsburgh by night. Pittsburgh by night reminds one of Dante's Inferno. It is a thrilling sight—those mighty tongues of flame and smoke. On the return trip the Allegheny mountains will be crossed shortly after daylight and many of the party for the first time will see a mountain.

NEXT BATTLE OF EARS

Buckeye Boys Breaking Sod and Selecting Seed For Contest.

An army of Buckeye Boys is breaking sod and selecting seed in preparation for next year's battle of ears. Far-sighted citizens all over Ohio are beginning to realize that the junior contest is one of the most effective means for creating an interest in scientific farming. Bankers, merchants and others who realize that agriculture is the foundation of business are getting behind the movement with liberal financial support in the way of prizes for the best yields.

Special Prizes.

Mr. Chas. S. Caldwell, president of the Corn Exchange National bank of Philadelphia, offers $100 in cash prizes for the best three ears of corn exhibited by members of the Junior Contest of the Buckeye Corn Boys. These prizes are divided as follows:

- First Prize$50.00
- Second Prize 25.00
- Third Prize 15.00
- Fourth Prize 10.00

WILL BE CONDUCTED ON MILITARY PLAN

Buckeye Corn Party to Be Divided Into Regiments.

The Buckeye Corn Special party will constitute an army in size. In 1912 it numbered 372. In 1913 it had grown to 932. This year a party of 1,500 is anticipated. It will be handled in military formation. Each train load will be designated a regiment and each car load will be designated a company. Some of Ohio's best citizens will serve as colonels and captains.

Adults to Travel Separate.

One or more cars of each train will be reserved exclusively for adults, who may prefer to travel separate from the boys and girls of the party. It is estimated that there will be 500 adults in the party.

Girls to Be Chaperoned.

Certain cars of each train will be reserved for the girls of the party. Likewise exclusive hotel accommodation has been provided. Each company of girls will be chaperoned by a competent matron. However, ample opportunity for acquaintance and sociability between girls and boys will be afforded while on boat trips, at banquets, at theaters, etc.

Physician to Accompany Each Train. A physician will accompany each train. However, the physicians who accompanied last year's party reported upon the completion of the tour that they had nothing to do on the tour except to give a little good advice against over-eating and against wearing new shoes on a sight-seeing trip.

ARNETT ROSE

Allen County Boy Is Champion Corn Grower of Buckeye State.

MIXED BRAIN AND BRAWN

Ohio's Champion Corn Grower Set Good Pattern For Elders.

This seventeen-year-old boy, by mixing a little brain with brawn, raised 153 bushels and 47 pounds of shelled corn on one acre. On the day that he husked his corn it had a market value of $96.92 for shipping purposes. Fed to stock upon the farm at the price of meat prevailing on that date its value was $145.38. It cost Arnett Rose $36.70 to produce that acre, allowing for labor, land rental and every expense properly chargeable against it. One hundred and eight dollars and sixty-eight cents is a conservative estimate of the net profit of that acre. Ohio's average net profit per acre is $7.22. Arnett Rose's yield figures a gain of $101.46 per acre over the average net profit. Ohio is devoting 4,000,000 acres to corn each year. If the farmers of Ohio were to accomplish what this boy of seventeen accomplished, it would mean a gain of $405,840,000 each year. In five years this would double the business of every bank in Ohio.

COST OF THE TRIP

Varies According to Station at Which Specials Are Boarded.

The tour costs juniors (unmarried persons under twenty-one years) $46.90 to $49.90, and adults $56.25 to $59.25, according to the station at which the Buckeye Corn Special is boarded. This cost covers absolutely every regular expense incident with the tour, from the time of boarding the Buckeye Corn Special to the time of leaving it upon the completion of the trip. Those desiring additional information should address T. P. Riddle, Lima, O.

RIVALRY AMONG BANDS

Forty-seven Organizations Want to Accompany Corn Special.

The popularity of the Buckeye Corn Special Tour is demonstrated by the fact that forty-seven bands have filed applications to accompany the party on the Washington-Philadelphia-New York trip. Last year Hart's Boys' Band of Hicksville accompanied the Buckeye Corn Special party. The boys made a hit. This year an effort is being made to secure a girls' band to lead the girls' division of the party and a boys' or men's band to lead the boys' division.

MEALS ON CORN SPECIAL

Will Begin With Breakfast at National Capital Dec. 1.

Meals start with breakfast upon arrival at Washington. Parties who board the Buckeye Corn Special before supper, should carry lunch sufficient to carry them until breakfast, Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Sleeping Car Berth Assignment. All juniors shall be assigned two to a berth, both upper and lower. Adults shall be assigned one to an upper and two to a lower.

EARLY DECISION IS EXPECTED

Columbus, Nov. 18.—The first legal battle between attorneys representing the dries and the wets on the question of a recount of the vote on the home rule liquor amendment will come in the supreme court at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, when the case will be heard on its merits. An early decision is anticipated. The main question involved in the case is whether there is any legal authority for recounting the vote cast on a constitutional question. That there is authority, will be disputed by Attorney General Hogan and his assistants, who will represent the secretary of state. Should the court find there is sufficient legal authority to cause a recount to be made, then it will consider the charges of irregularity urged by the dries to determine whether they constitute cause sufficient to order the recount. Should the court find there is no authority compelling election officials to make a recount, then the fight of the dries is lost. They then expect to appeal to the general assembly to enact legislation providing for a recount, so they will have a weapon to fight with in subsequent elections.

DEPLORES ARMED PEACE

New York, Nov. 18.—A plea for international disarmament as the only preventive of great world wars was made by Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Leland Stanford university, before the American Peace society. He characterized the "armed peace" as a grimace at international peace and prosperity, and that the present European war is the natural and expected result of safeguarding peace by war preparations.

"So long as nations protect themselves by arming," declared Doctor Jordan, "the story will be repeated. You have all heard that famous axiom, 'to be prepared for war is the surest way to secure peace.' That was forged in hell.

"No man is so great or so wicked enough to have brought on this war himself; no nation is so strong or so wicked to bring about this war alone. It is the inevitable result of military efficiency. Europe has piled up tinder in way of armaments so high that any man's match might have set it off."

SEMI-ANNUAL HORSE SALE OPENED THIS AFTERNOON

Scores of Animals Will Pass Under the Hammer During Next Few Days—Agent Here to Buy War Horses—Quarantine Has Some Effect but Big Sale is Assured and Scores of Buyers are Arriving in City.

During the past few days quite a number of horsemen have been arriving in Washington C. H., from various parts of the state and country to attend the three days' fall horse sale which is being held by the Washington Combination Sales Company today, Thursday and Friday. Among them and among local horsemen, the belief is expressed that the sale will be a good one despite the inconveniences caused by the foot and mouth quarantine and other adverse conditions which, it was thought, might affect the sale.

The sale started at 1 o'clock this afternoon with a good miscellaneous offering, which is being knocked out under the hammer of Colonel John Pease, of Dayton. It is expected that the number of sales during the three days will near 300. Among the horses can be found pretty nearly all kinds of stock, including some mighty good speed horses, both trotters and pacers.

It is thought losses sustained by local horse and stockmen on account of the quarantine will affect the local buying but not as greatly, probably, as was at first feared. The hay and straw quarantine is also a difficulty.

The representative horse buyer for the British and French armies, who has been in this city during the past few days, will attend the sale and it is expected that he, alone, will purchase a carload, if the offerings are suitable.

Among the visitors arriving in the city Wednesday were L. G. Duffey, of Cleveland, member of the editorial staff of the American Sportsman; Harry D. Shepherd, of Columbus, secretary of the Grand Circuit, and Charles Valentine, of Columbus, well known Grand Circuit driver.

GET PERMITS FROM DISTRICT INSPECTOR

As soon as all work of disinfecting railroad pens and cars is completed and shipments of live stock are permitted in Ohio, which it is believed will be done within a very short time, permits must be obtained from the district inspectors, and the district inspector for this and adjoining counties is located at the Phillips hotel, Dayton.

The order issued to railroads is a stringent one, and calls for a thorough cleaning of all pens and cars, followed by a careful disinfection of the pens and cars.

LEG AMPUTATED BELOW THE KNEE

Mr. Enos Ortman, who several weeks ago suffered a very bad fracture of the right leg when his horse became frightened while he was driving on Dayton avenue, underwent an operation, Tuesday, in which the leg was removed below the knee.

Mr. Ortman withstood the ordeal very well, and his early recovery is now expected. Since the leg was broken it has failed to heal, owing to the fact that the bones were splintered in a horrible manner and had penetrated the flesh.

SLAV IS PICKED UP IN THIS CITY

John Cerelnork, presumably from Chicago, was picked up in this city Wednesday morning by employees of the C. H. & D., and efforts made to reach his son in Chicago.

The man, is a Slav and who could not understand English, other than a few simple words. He was penniless and almost helpless. A telegram was sent to the son in Chicago and one of the big-hearted employees of the C. H. & D. agreed to bear the expense of keeping the man until word is received from his son.

DEPUTY WARDEN BUSY IN FAYETTE

Reliable reports indicate that a deputy game warden is now at work in Fayette county, endeavoring to ferret out violators of the law who may have been hunting, regardless of the order to the contrary.

Fifty additional deputy game wardens have been added to the force during the past few days, and many arrests for violation of the law are expected.

JESSE SLONAKER DIES IN THE WEST

Jesse Slonaker, formerly of this city, but who has spent many years in Jamestown, where he conducted a racket store, died suddenly at his late home in Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday according to a telegram received by relatives in western Fayette county.

Mr. Slonaker was born in this city and lived here until he became a young man, and moved to Jamestown where he resided for many years. A few years ago he moved to California and has since been employed as manager of a big department store in Los Angeles.

Mr. Slonaker was returning from church when he was seized with a hemorrhage which quickly ended his life. He leaves a wife and two children.

MANY COVEYS OF THE NEW GAME BIRD

Reports from many of those who obtained one of the 60 pairs of Hungarian partridges distributed throughout Fayette county last winter, are to the effect that the birds have increased rapidly during the past season, and there are many coveys of 8 to 15 birds scattered about the county, principally upon farms where they will be protected by the landowner.

Several pairs of the birds perished in the big snow which fell soon after they were distributed, but the majority survived the snow and are doing nicely.

BAN PLACED ON SALES OF CATTLE SHEEP AND HOGS

Section three of Order No. 11, issued by the State Agricultural Commission, reads:

"No public sales or exhibitions of cattle, sheep, other ruminants or swine in the said quarantined area are permitted."

Public sales, where any of the above live stock is offered, are thus under the ban of the quarantine, and until the quarantine is less rigid, no public sales of live stock will be held in this or any other county.

ORDINARY WELL WATER CAUSE OF DREAD TYPHOID

Using water from a well on John street has resulted in seven persons becoming afflicted with severe cases of typhoid fever, and all are now under a physician's care.

Four of the victims are in the Scott family and three in the John Johnson family, both families having used water from the same well, and the well is where it could be easily contaminated. There have been several cases of typhoid fever in the city for some time, and according to a local physician, all cases are due directly to the use of water from shallow wells, or from wells which are located where contamination is very easy.

In no instance, it is claimed, has a case of typhoid fever been found in the city where the victim used the city water.

The Board of Health for years has been waging war on dug wells within the city limits and time after time have closed and had filled wells from which dread typhoid fever germs have come. Those who use water from dug wells within the city limits do so at the risk of contracting the disease.

MORE FISH ADDED TO FAYETTE STREAMS

A short time ago eight cans of large and small bass, from the government hatcheries, were added to the streams of Fayette county, being distributed by the Fish and Game Society of the county.

This is the second shipment of fish distributed through the society in this county, and the shipments are expected to do much toward restocking the streams.

Besides the work of restocking the streams, adding game birds to the county, and the good moral influence wielded by the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association, the association has done much toward improving fish and game conditions in Fayette county.

MADE A RECORD FALL.

It Was Remarkable, Not For Distance, but For Results.

Writing in 1841 of a fall from an immense altitude which did not result in death, a French observer, M. Manzini, declares that he had searched in vain in the annals of science for a similar case. We can well believe it.

The victim or patient was a tapist who had been engaged in putting up decorations on the occasion of the belated obsequies of Napoleon the Great in the lofty dome of the Church of the Invalides in Paris. When busy moving a ladder on the top of a high scaffolding he overbalanced himself and, in obedience to some obscure instinct, jumped clear of the ladder and the platform, crying to his fellow workmen as only a Frenchman would, "Behold me quit!"

With these cheering words on his lips he fell eighty-two feet, bounding in one place off the roof of a little dome, which caused him to describe a second parabola in the air, and landing finally, feet first, on the slate roof of a small sacristy.

Crashing through the slates, he landed astride a rafter, where he was found sitting, surprised, but coherent, for he was able to give his name and address when asked for them. He had no recollection of this and became unconscious when put to bed shortly afterward under the care of the great Pasquier. His insensibility lasted a very short time, however, and he made an extraordinarily rapid recovery, having sustained no apparent injuries, either external or internal. At the end of a month Pasquier found him quite well.—London Lancet.

Not a Complaint.

"Of what complaint," asked the insurance agent, "did your father die?"
"Well," was the reply, "it was not exactly in a sort of way, as it were, a complaint precisely, if you understand me. The fact is the jury found him guilty."—London Telegraph.
